20 The parties to this action, Defendant Wal-Mart Stores, Inc. d/b/a Wal-Mart Supercenter No.
21 5070 ("Walmart" or "Defendant") and Plaintiff Leena Kochhar, by their respective counsel, hereby 22 stipulate and request that the Court enter a stipulated protective order pursuant as follows:

23 1. The Protective Order shall be entered pursuant to the Federal Rules of Civil 24 Procedure.

25 2. The Protective Order shall govern all materials deemed to be "Confidential 26 Information." Such Confidential Information shall include the following:

27 (a) Any and all documents referring or related to confidential and proprietary 28 human resources or business information; financial records of the parties;

3. In the case of documents and the information contained therein, designation of Confidential Information produced shall be made by placing the following legend on the face of the document and each page so designated "CONFIDENTIAL" or otherwise expressly identified as confidential. Defendant Walmart will use its best efforts to limit the number of documents designated Confidential.

4. Confidential Information shall be held in confidence by each qualified recipient to whom it is disclosed, shall be used only for purposes of this action, shall not be used for any business purpose, and shall not be disclosed to any person who is not a qualified recipient. All produced Confidential Information shall be carefully maintained so as to preclude access by persons who are not qualified recipients.

5. Qualified recipients shall include only the following:

2 6. Each counsel shall be responsible for providing notice of the Protective Order and the 4 the Protective Order.

5 Persons to whom confidential information is shown shall be informed of the terms of this 6 Order and advised that its breach may be punished or sanctioned as contempt of the Court. Such 7 deponents may be shown Confidential materials during their deposition but shall not be permitted to 8 keep copies of said Confidential materials nor any portion of the deposition transcript reflecting the 9 Confidential Information.

10 If either party objects to the claims that information should be deemed Confidential, that 11 party's counsel shall inform opposing counsel in writing within thirty (30) days of receipt of the 12 Confidential materials that the information should not be so deemed, and the parties shall attempt first 13 to dispose of such disputes in good faith and on an informal basis. If the parties are unable to resolve 14 their dispute, they may present a motion to the Court objecting to such status. The information shall 15 continue to have Confidential status during the pendency of any such motion.

16 7. No copies of Confidential Information shall be made except by or on behalf of 17 attorneys of record, in-house counsel or the parties in this action. Any person making copies of such 18 information shall maintain all copies within their possession or the possession of those entitled to 19 access to such information under the Protective Order.

20 8. Any party that inadvertently discloses or produces in this action a document or 21 information that it considers privileged or otherwise protected from discovery, in whole or in part,
22 shall not be deemed to have waived any applicable privilege or protection by reason of such disclosure 23 or production if, within 14 days of discovering that such document or information has been disclosed
24 or produced, the producing party gives written notice to the receiving party identifying the document 25 or information in question, the asserted privileges or protection, and the grounds there for, with a 26 request that all copies of the document or information be returned or destroyed. The receiving party
